

rents and profits accruing therefrom in such manner as will best promote the prosperity and utility of such library; provided such application be according to the terms of the gifts, donations, devises, bequests and legacies.

1898, ch. 515.

87 L. Every public library established under this sub title shall receive annually from the State a copy of the laws, journals and all other books published by the authority of the State, and in return therefor shall transmit a copy of its annual report to the State library.

Ibid.

87 M. All real estate acquired for the use and benefit of any library and reading room as aforesaid established, with the accrements thereon, and all property that shall be a part of any such library and reading room shall be exempt from all State, county and municipal taxation.

Manual Training Schools.

1898, ch. 273.

110. It shall be the duty of the board of county school commissioners, when a suitable building, or room or rooms connected with one of the large graded schools or high schools shall be provided by the county, or money sufficient for the erection of such building, or room or rooms, to accept the same, (if, in the judgment of the board, there is any necessity therefor,) and thereafter to provide for the maintenance of a manual training school, or manual training department, for said county, and the salaries of teachers and manual training instructors, out of the general school fund and the State aid hereinafter provided.

Ibid.

111. Whenever a manual training school, or manual training department, is opened in any county, the president and secretary of the board of county school commissioners of said county shall report to the secretary of the State board of education, and the State board of education shall, without delay, proceed to appoint the principal of the State normal school, or one of the teachers in said school, well qualified for such service, to visit the school